AIEEE 2012 (OFF LINE EXAM 29TH APRIL 2012)

The most prestigious entrance exam of Engineering, AIEEE 2012 was conducted on 29th April 2012 from 9.30 am to 12.30 pm.

The number of questions in the paper was 90 and it was of 360 marks had 1/4th negative marks for wrong answer.

PHYSICS paper was very easy in comparison to the last year and a cake walk for the students who prepared well for AIEEE 2012 as few of the questions were from Atomic Structure & Logic Gates which is in AIEEE syllabus only.

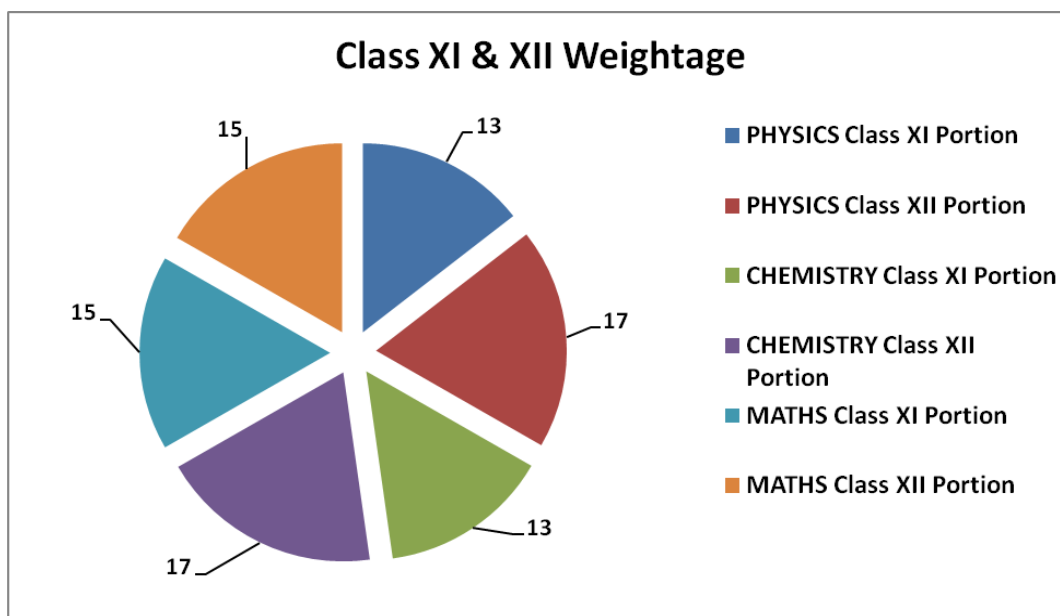

CHEMISTRY paper can be said an average paper. 43% portion was from class 11 and rest of the portion was from class 12. Like physics 5 questions were from Polymers, Chemistry in everyday life, Pollution & Biomolecules which is in AIEEE syllabus only.

MATHS paper was also an average paper in comparison to the last year and was in equal weightage of class 11 and 12. Two questions were from AIEEE syllabus only.

Overall we can say that this was an average paper and exactly as per the AIEEE syllabus.
